

THE FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Publisher.

A WEEKLY PAPER—DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND SOCIETY NEWS.

TERMS: $1.00 In Advance

VOL. XXIV.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1901.

NO. 23

Miss Mabel Montgomery, as The Widow in Hoyt's Trip to Chinatown, Monday, February 18.

THE GUARANTEED SUCCESS.

Next Monday evening at the Capital Theatre will be given a gala event, the occasion being the appearance of Harry Gilfoil, Mable Montgomery, Fleurette, Pearl Hamlin, Emily Gardner, Clayton Kennedy, Will Philbrick and fifteen other clever comedians in the superb production of Chas.

BENSON VALLEY.

Weather fair for the farmers. Mr. Jim Pence will soon move to the farm owned by his father, Mr. James Pence, near Benson. The farm is now occupied by Mr. Jesse Smith.

Miss Carrie Sudduth, the beautiful young daughter of Mr. J. H. Sudduth, of Leestown, is visiting at Bryantown this week.

The singing at Mr. Sam Huletts' last Sunday night was quite a success. There was a large number of persons present, and the singing was melodious.

Mr. Lee Sudduth, of Christiansburg, visited his parents, Mr. Syl Sudduth and wife, of Benson, last Saturday and Sunday.

Last Thursday was St. Valentine's day. Trust there was no one slighted in this community.

On Thursday night of last week there was an expected dance to be given out on the St John's pike. So two nice young gents of this neighborhood were present. They passed through Mr. Syl Sudduth's place, leaving a fine track behind them, and the fences

Hoyt's most popular comedy success, "A Trip to Chinatown," presented in a most sumptuous manner, with everything in the way of scenery, stage accessories, music, dances, specialties and costuming new and fully up to date.

Of all the many comedies that have been presented here under the name of Hoyt, there is none that has so strong a hold upon theatre-goers as "A Trip to Chinatown." Its coming engagement is looked forward to as one of the season's theatrical events, and that it will be accorded a royal welcome, goes without saying.

The sale of seats now in progress indicates that the "standing room only" sign on the night of his engagement, will be brought into use.

Any one wishing an up to-date hair cut and fine shave please apply to Mr. Harry Phillips, the city barber.

We want to correct the mistake that was made in last week's letter. It was not Sudduth but Suttles the poetry was in memory of.

Rev. Humphrey M. Polsgrove will preach at Chateaufort Church Sunday at 8 o'clock.

Reports show a greatly increased death rate from throat and lung troubles, due to the prevalence of croup, pneumonia and gripple. We advise the use of One Minute Cough Cure in all of these difficulties. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Children like it. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

A CHARITY BENEFIT!

True charity, which has as its aim a worthy object, and where there is no gratification of selfish ambition is always commendable and truly beautiful. Never more so than when it relieves or comforts a suffering companion. Many people in this city are aware, that for a number of years, pupils of the public schools have, in various ways, contributed to supply various necessities and comforts to a crippled boy formerly attendant with them in school. He has always accepted gratefully their efforts in his behalf. They have always cheerfully contributed, each one as he was able, and with that insurmountable love and pity which one so often sees blended in the brightness and carelessness of youth. For some time the boy has been confined to his home and dependent to a large extent upon outside aid. Another appeal to the generosity of the children was to be made soon. Learning this the senior class, who contemplated a private entertainment for their friends upon the anniversary of the greatest of American poets, Longfellow, determined to make public their exercises, with the aid of a large number of High School pupils, and this to be a benefit for this truly deserving charity.

The character of this entertainment, though varied, is drawn entirely from the works of Longfellow.

Part one is the "Masque of Pandora," an imitation of the Greek Drama, so lately revived in Eastern Colleges.

Part two is to be a series of tableaux, interspersed with instrumental music.

Since the 27th of February, (the Longfellow anniversary,) comes within the Lenten season this benefit will be given on the 16th, to-morrow evening at the Capital Theatre. Although thus hastened and though all work is done entirely outside of school hours, the performance promises to be creditable.

Only a small admission will be charged. On and after Thursday tickets may be reserved at Barrett's for 25c, general admission to other parts of the house 20c, gallery 10c. It is hoped there will be a good attendance to further this kindly action.

FREQUENT COUGHING

Inflames the lungs, Foley's Honey and Tar stops the coughing and heals the lungs. The ordinary cough medicines which are simply expectorants, will not do this, as they keep the lungs irritated in throwing off the phlegm. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

STREET SUNK.

Owing to the breaking of the watermain at the corner of Main and St. Clair streets, on Wednesday night, a big hole was made under the brick street before the water could be turned off. The surplus water was carried off by the big sewer and workmen were at once put to repairing the street.

DEATHS.

RUNYAN—At the home of her son, Mr. W. T. Runyan, in Norborne, Mo., on Tuesday, February 12, Mrs. Mary Trayne Runyan, aged 84 years.

The sad news came here on Wednesday that this venerable and beloved mother in Israel had passed to the better land. For more than 80 years she had presided over the famous Greenwood Female Seminary, of this city, and the graduates from it, upon whom the impress of the noble life of this godly woman, was indelibly placed, are scattered all through this section of Kentucky. Until the death of her husband, Mrs. Runyan resided here, but afterwards returned to the home of her girlhood, at New London, N. H., where her only sister lived, and remained there until the death of that sister. About a month ago she went to Norborne, Mo., to the home of her son and there met the great destroyer.

After a life of consecrated service, she has passed to her reward, full of honors and of love.

The remains were brought here Thursday and interred in the family lot in our cemetery.

ZOOK—In Louisville, on Monday, February 11, Mr. William Zook, aged forty-two years.

He had been ill for some time with Bright's disease, which caused his death.

He was an old resident of Frankfort, but has resided in Louisville for the past nine years. He leaves two children, a son and a daughter, together with five sisters (Mrs. Mary R. Collison, Mrs. John Pierce, Mrs. Dave Miller, Mrs. Louis Oliver and Mrs. Allen Reeves) and one brother (Mr. James Zook) to mourn his untimely death, with a large circle of friends.

His remains were brought to this city by his sister, Mrs. Collison, of Louisville, and the funeral was conducted Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. Mr. Savage, of the Methodist Church, of which he was a member, and he was laid to rest by the side of his beloved parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zook, who have passed on before him.

HUGHES—In this county, at the home of Mr. John Hallack, Mr. George Hughes, aged 24 years.

He was a fine young man, beloved by all who knew him. He had only been married about a year and a half. He was ready to go when the summons came, and told his loved ones not to grieve after him; that he was not afraid; that he had placed himself in the hands of the Lord.

He leaves a young wife, mother and two sisters to mourn his death.

Seventeen pounds of standard granulated sugar for $1 at Langdon-Creasey Co.'s.

MATRIMONIAL.

RICHARDS-LEROY—A the residence of Rev. Geo. Darsie, 104 Main street, on Tuesday, February 12, 1901, Mr. William Richards, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Margaret Leroy, of Hillsboro, Ohio.

DEAKINS-DAVIS—At the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. Geo. Darsie, 104 Main street, on Thursday, February 7, 1901, Mr. John Deakins, of Frankfort, and Miss Mary T. Davis, of Peaks Mill, Ky.

COUNTED AND DECLARED.

The Senate and House of Representatives of Congress, in joint assembly, counted the votes of the several States, as cast at the November election, and declared Wm. McKinley, of Ohio, elected President, and Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, Vice-President, for the term of four years from March 4th next. Thus, after nearly four months, the voice of the people as recorded at the polls is officially announced.

Fatal delays are caused by experimenting with cough and cold cures. Foley's Honey and Tar will prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

MADE A GOOD SALE.

Mr. W. G. Florian, who lives on the Wood place, near Woodlake sold his crop of 14,000 pounds of tobacco to Sutherland & Co., at Midway, for 7 cents round. This is a first-class price and saves warehouse fees in Louisville. If any one beats Mr. Florian they will have to arise early in the morning and keep at it.

New lot of bright colored rugs, beautiful in design and finish, a great bargain at 98 cents at Langdon-Creasey Co.'s.

HANDSOME WORK.

The souvenir program for the Elks Concert of last night is one of the handsomest pieces of work turned out by the Geo. A. Lewis Publishing Co. It does credit to the designers and executors in every way. It is but a fair sample of what this first class house can do. They execute work promptly and on as reasonable terms as any house in the State.

WORKING OVERTIME.

Eight hour laws are ignored by those tireless hotel workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing indigestion, biliousness, constipation, sick headache and all stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure. Only 25 cents at J. W. Gayle's.

WELL PLEASED.

Well pleased patrons is the record of the Home Steam Laundry. "That is the nicest work I have had for many days" is the cheering word my driver hears. Let me please you too.

A Society Woman

Undergoes a greater strain than is generally realized, and every woman is a society woman in her own circle. The debts of society are many and must be paid, or there will come social bankruptcy, and it is in the punctual payment of social debts, regardless of health or feelings, that women often lay the foundation for serious illness. The late hours and rich foods, common to society gatherings, soon or late damage the stomach; the liver, perhaps, becomes involved, and the heart flutters or palpitates.

There is no medicine for the cure of diseases of the stomach, and organs of digestion which can equal Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It heals the stomach, purifies and enriches the blood, cleanses the clogged liver, nourishes the nerves, and gives face and form the radiant beauty of health.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics.

Mrs. L. Hedgcock, of Dozier, Collingsworth Co., Texas, writes: "I was troubled for seven or eight years with indigestion and liver complaint, and received more benefit from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' than any medicines I have ever tried."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

The Frankfort Roundabout

Entered at the postoffice at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, FEBRUARY, 16 1901.

"THE PERIL OF IDLENESS."

The "Peril of Idleness" was the theme of Rev. M. B. Adams' sixth sermon in the series he is preaching as to "The Perils of the City." He handled the subject with force and power. He was especially severe upon the sports—"the dead game sport," the "society sport," et id omne genus—who exist but to prey upon the substance of those who earn their living by hard work and yet are too weak to withstand the temptations of the city.

In passing he took a whack at the "society woman," and showed how little she knew or cared as to the solemn duties of life, home and motherhood.

He said he had nothing but the tenderest sympathy for that man who was in enforced idleness because of inability to get work, but at the same time he held the loafer and idler by choice in the profoundest contempt as being unworthy to live in decent society, and not fitted for death and the judgment. He declared that there was something radically wrong in that social system where millions can be rapidly piled up by speculators and millionaires while honest labor is deprived of its opportunity to earn an honest living by honest work.

He warned young men and women of the pitfalls and dangers that encompass the paths of the deliberate idler and loafer. And wound up his discourse by a beautiful quotation from Tennyson, based upon the allegory of the "Ten Virgins," the concluding sentence being "Too late, ye can not enter now," and a stirring appeal for all present to consecrate themselves, by God's grace, to the service of the Master, declaring that there could be no idler among true Christians.

There was a very large audience present, who listened with profound attention.

The preacher announced for his subject next Sunday night "Thou Shalt Not Kill," or the theme of "murder," and earnestly invited every man and boy in the city who carries a gun to be present at that time, but to leave the gun at home.

A FIREMAN'S CLOSE CALL.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa, "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. W. Gayle. Price, 50 cents.

BEAUTIFUL LIFE BEAUTIFULLY ENDED.

The sad news came to this city on Monday night that Miss Martha Roberts Knott, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Richard Knott, had died at the home of her mother, in Louisville, at 6:30 p. m., of pneumonia. She was the sister of Mr. R. W. Knott, editor Evening Post; of Mr. Stuart R. Knott, President of the Kansas City Southern Railroad, of Kansas City, Mo.; of Mr. Wm. T. Knott, of New York City, and Mr. Eugene Knott, of Louisville. Hers was one of the purest, most unselfish and ideal lives it has ever been our privilege to come in contact with. It had been a busy one, filled to the brim with thoughtful kindness and love for others, regardless of her own comfort and ease.

Early in life she consecrated her heart to the service of the Master, uniting with the Presbyterian Church, and became a living exemplification of the power of the religion of the Blessed Savior to control and govern the labors of her hands.

Highly cultivated, she delighted in the beauties of nature and art, assisting in bringing out their refining and elevating influences in the home and the social circle.

Timid, modest and retiring she was content with results accomplished, rather than in exploiting herself as the author of those results.

Her memory will linger long in the hearts of all who knew her as a sweet perfume. Earth is sadly impoverished by her departure, and the heavenly choir has gained a sweeter note of praise.

Knowing her as we did, we admired and loved her for the many graces of mind, person and heart that adorned her life.

Sadly we lay this tribute of affection upon her new made grave.

The funeral services took place in Louisville and the remains were brought here on Wednesday morning and placed in the family lot in our cemetery.

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB.

The business men of this city met at the court-house on Tuesday night. After considerable discussion it was resolved to organize a Business Men's Club, and the following officers were elected: President—Dr. E. E. Hume; Corresponding Secretary—Wm. Cromwell; Recording Secretary—John H. Cassell; Treasurer—J. Buford Hendrick. Members were enrolled to the number of 65, and the meeting adjourned until Thursday night.

"I have always used Foley's Honey and Tar medicine, and think it the best in the world," says Chas. Bender, a newsdealer of Erie, Pa. Nothing else as good. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie

HONORS WORTHILY BESTOWED.

On Monday last President McKinley appointed Gen. Jas. H. Wilson, of Delaware, and Gen. Fitz Hugh Lee, of Virginia, who are now serving as Brigadier Generals in the Volunteers, as Brigadiers in the Regular Army. This wise action meets the hearty concurrence of the whole people. Each man has made his record, having been Major Generals in the civil war, the first in the Federal and the last in the Confederate Army.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap.

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible, it is not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Booschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by S. B. Holmes.

That Cough Hangs On

You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system against further attacks. If you are run down or emaciated you should certainly take this nourishing food medicine.

See and try it at all druggists.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

UNUSUAL SIGHT.

On Tuesday morning the unusual sight of wagon load of movers went up Main street, with a stove in full blast, and the pipe extending through the top. The wagon was a fine, large one, with four horses hitched to it, and seemed to be well fixed in every way. A saddle horse was led by the side of the wagon.

PNEUMONIA CAN BE PREVENTED.

This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip, and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. That remedy was extensively used during the epidemic of grippe of the past few years, and not a single case has been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained a world wide reputation for its cures of colds and grip. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

SHE'S A BIRD.

The wife of a Methodist minister in an Iowa town has been married three times. Her maiden name was Partridge, her first husband was named Robin, the second Sparrow, and the present one Quayles. There are two Robins, one Sparrow and three little Quayles, and the family live on Jay street. One might almost be forgiven for suggesting that the lady was a bird.

You can bet your last dollar she is a bird if she can run that brood without having a (howling) time of it.

A MISUNDERSTANDING.

Misunderstood symptoms of diseases lead doctors to treat something else when the kidneys are out of order. Foley's Kidney pills will bring you health when other medicines have failed. Take no substitute. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

BEAUTIFUL STORE.

The recently opened store of Mr. W. S. Farmer, corner of Main and Lewis streets, is one of the handsomest in our city. The steel ceiling is beautifully ornamented with embossed vines, flowers and figures, and the whole interior fixtures are such as to reflect great credit upon the taste and discretion of its bustling proprietor.

It is crowded with a beautiful and up-to-date stock of spring and summer goods, carpets, rugs and matings.

By reference to his ad, in another place, our patrons will know where to go for first-class goods.

TO STOP A COLD.

After exposure, or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of Foley's Honey Tar. It never fails to stop a cold if taken in time. Take nothing else; South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

JURY HUNG.

The jury in the famous barber Weaver case, at Georgetown, hung fast and tight on Friday and were dismissed. They stood six and six. What little testimony it takes to convict in some cases, by a Scott county jury, and what a terrible lot in others. Moral: Always be sure who is on that jury.

BURIED ON SATURDAY.

The funeral of Judge W. G. Bullitt took place on Saturday morning, at 11 o'clock, from the family residence on Wapping street. It was largely attended. Rev. R. L. McCready, of the Episcopal Church, conducted the services, after which the remains were interred in the cemetery here.

Millions of people are familiar with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, and those who use them find them to be famous little liver pills. Never gripe. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

LA GRIPPE QUICKLY CURED.

"In the winter of 1898 and 1899 I was taken down with a severe attack of what is called la grippe," says F. L. Hewitt, a prominent druggist of Winfield, Ill. "The only medicine I used was two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It broke up the cold and stopped the coughing like magic, and have never since been troubled with la grippe." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon to break up a cold and ward off any threatened attack of pneumonia. It is pleasant to take, too, which makes it the most desirable and one of the most popular preparations in use for these ailments. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower affixes the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and your grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by S. B. Holmes. 4-ly.

[From Manila Times, Jan. 7.]
GOVERNMENT DECIDES TO DEPORT REBEL LEADERS TO GUAM ISLAND.

Eighteen Filipino Officers, including the Notorious Pio del Pilar, and Eight Civil Officers, Insurgent Agents, Sympathizers and Agitators Who Are Aiding the Insurrection to be Placed Out of Harm's Way.

This morning a general order was posted at the Ayuntamiento announcing the long talked of deportation of insurgent leaders. Those included in the list are those inerrigible ones who have steadfastly refused to take the oath of allegiance to the United States and renounce their insurgent principles, or those who, having sworn the same oath, have violated a sacred confidence reposed in them as Christians and men of honor and become traitors, stirring up sedition, giving information, or plotting in aid of the insurrection.

The following is an official copy of General Order No. 41, January 7:—

In pursuance of authority obtained from the War Department by cable under date of December 27, 1900, the following named persons, whose overt acts have clearly revealed them as in aid of or in sympathy with the insurrection and the irregular guerrilla warfare by which it is being maintained, and whose continued residence in these Islands is, in every essential regard, inimical to the pacification thereof, will be deported at the earliest practicable date to the Island of Guam, there to be held under surveillance or in actual custody, as circumstances may require, during the further progress of hostilities and until such time as the restoration of normal peace conditions in the Philippines has resulted in a public declaration of the termination of such hostilities:

General Officers: Artemio Rio-arte, Pio del Pilar, Maximo Hizon, Mariano Lanera, Francisco del os Santos.

Colonels: Macario de Ocampo Esteban Consortes, Lucas Camerino, Julian Gerona.

Lieutenant - Colonels: Pedro Cubarrubias, Mariano Barraga, Hermogenes Plata, Cornelio Requesia.

Major: Fabian Villaruel.

Subordinate Insurgent Officers: Juan Leandro Illarino, Jose Mata, Ygnidio de Jesus, Alipio Tecson.

Civil Officers, Insurgent Agents, Sympathizers and Agitators: Apolinaro Mabini, Pablo Ocampo, Maximo Trias, Simon Tecson, Pio Varican, Anastasio Carmona, Mariano Sevilla, Manuel E. Roxas.

By command of Major General Arthur MacArthur.

THOMAS H. BARRY, Brigadier General, U. S. Volunteers, Chief of Staff.

The deportation of the insurgent leaders has been hoped for by all for a long time. Those, perhaps, to whom much credit for this step is due, are the Manila Police Department, who have steadfastly advocated the removal from the islands of all such as the above order embraces. The reason was based on the sentiment of the native police officials, who can, perhaps, feel the native public pulse best of all. These have stated evidential facts, and demonstrated the advisability of removing the presence of such men from the islands. At first it was suggested to place them in confinement on an island north of Manila, and the visit of General Bell to Isla Grande in Subig Bay was obviously for the purpose of inspecting a proposed locality. The police, however, have maintained their point in urging that the men who have shown themselves unworthy of trust be shipped to a point distant from the entire Archipelago, and there kept under surveillance until the declared cessation of hostilities. The authority for this has now come from the War Department, and there is no doubt that all concerned are glad of such welcome authorization.

The names of those published are sufficient to satisfy every body of the necessity of this step—they are those who have betrayed the confidence of the government and a sacred oath, in some cases, several times over. Pio del Pilar is an example. Captured, perhaps willingly on his part, at a place near San Felipe Neri last June, he was brought to Manila, imprisoned, voluntarily swore the oath of allegiance and was liberated. He was found to be corresponding with insurgent chiefs, re-arrested in July, and again liberated, only to be seized again by the police a month or so ago with correspondence on him to rebel chiefs concerning arms and ammunition, and supplying information. Of such men as these the list of those to be deported is made, with the exception of those who, honest and brave, steadfastly refuse to swear an oath against their conscience which they can not keep.

[The above was sent us by Capt. Noel Gaines, Assistant Chief of Police, Manila. We are glad to know that he is prospering.—Editor Roundabout.]

The dwelling house formerly owned by the mother of the editors of this paper, Mrs. Mary J. Lewis, corner of Lewis and Clinton streets, has been torn down to make room for a livery stable.

It develops that it was one of the best built and most substantial frame houses ever erected in this city. The studding is 4x8 inches, whip-sawed, and they run the full length of the two stories. The house was what is known as a brick-frame, having brick filling between the lathes and the weather-boarding. It was built by the late Mr. John Vest, father of U. S. Senator Geo. Graham Vest, of Missouri. It shows him to have been a faithful and honest workman, bearing this testimony long after Mr. Vest had gone the way of all the earth.

There are many tender memories cherished in our hearts, that cluster around the old home, and we were saddened when we learned that it was being torn down.

HOW TO CURE THE GRIP.

Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. That remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is only the real serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

STAMPING GROUND.

Rev. T. W. Beagle, pastor of the Baptist Church, is down with catarrhal fever. Consequently there was no service at the Baptist Church on Sunday.

The grip has got us tight and fast. Among those down with it are Esq. J. S. Lindsey and wife, Uncle Ben Miller, Mrs. Catlin, Mr. Oscar Jameson and wife, and Mrs. Geo. E. Wilkerson.

The entertainment given here so successfully February 1st was reproduced at Switzer on Thursday evening to a good audience. It was a two act comedy, entitled "New Years in New York."

Dr. R. H. Sparks was seriously injured Friday last, by having his buggy overturned. It seems that he was out on the Owen ton pike when he met a portable engine. His horse took fright and ran away, throwing the doctor out on his head. He was unconscious for some time. Medical attention was rendered. If not internally injured it is thought he will soon be about again.

Misses Hattie Hambrick and Mattie Hamon, of Georgetown, visited Miss Ella Yates last week.

Mr. J. T. Reynolds will move his family to Cynthia March 1st. YACOB.

COMMUNICATED.

Editor Roundabout:

I wish, through the columns of your paper, to thank the lady managers and nurses of the Kings Daughters Hospital for their kind and intelligent treatment of me while a patient of that institution.

No one could have received more kind and faithful attention on the nurses' part, on which depended, to a large degree, the success of the physician's or surgeon's skill, than I.

"This is the opoth of benevolence—the period when man in the rightful recognition of his relations towards his fellow beings voluntarily assumes duties and responsibilities for the care of the unfortunate; when the heart is being so trained and educated that its inner promptings compel those favored by fortune to extend the hand of benevolence to succor the distressed, who otherwise would be doomed to misery and despair," as I would have been.

To one and all my heartfelt thanks.

HOWARD H. SCANLAND.

A Clear Head.

The successful outcome of any enterprise or the accomplishment of any labor, depends, first of all upon the possession of a clear head. The head that is dull, dizzy, nervous, fretful, melancholy, easily confused, or that throbs, aches and pains, is not fit for service. Not only is such a head lacking in mental capacity, but it actually weakens and destroys the nerve forces and lowers the vitality of every organ of the body.

"Notwithstanding treatment by our best physicians I suffered for years from nervous and sick headaches and got so bad that I was unfit to attend to my law practice four days out of six. I lost my appetite and flesh, had no energy and could scarcely sleep at all. I bought a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine and was relieved in twelve hours, but I continued the remedy and have scarcely had a touch of headache since."

T. N. L. CUNNINGHAM, Dayton, Tenn.
